Introduction

Job information is scattered across multiple websites, making search slow and confusing
Users waste time visiting different websites for details like salary, location, eligibility, and deadlines
Need for a centralized platform that is easy to navigate.
Website saves time and effort by combining all job listings in one place

Website Overview Content

User Authentication: Secure login and registration for all users
Dual Search Options: Search jobs by role (e.g., Frontend Developer) or by company (e.g., Google, Amazon)
Interactive Job Cards: Show job title, company, location, salary, eligibility, and apply link Responsive Design: Works well on both desktop and mobile

Technology & Features

Frontend: React,React Router,CSS
React Skills: Components (JobCard, Dashboard), Hooks (useState, useEffect), Props & State for dynamic data, Routing for navigation, Event Handling for search and logout

Login & Search Features

Login & Registration: Users create an account usi name, email, and password; login securely; logout safely

Dual Search: Search jobs by role or by company

Real-Time Results: Jobs appear instantly as user types

Toggle feature allows switching between role/company search easily

Protects user data and personal session using localStorage

Job Cards & Dashboard

Job Cards: Show full details including company, location, salary, eligibility, deadlines
Interactive Design: Hover effects, color-coded badges for job type/status, direct application links
Dashboard: Personalized welcome message, dual search bar, daily motivational quotes
Responsive Design: Works perfectly on mobile and desktop screens
Users can quickly filter and access jobs
